OBTAINING A COPY OF THE CIVIL STATUS RECORD AND A CERTIFICATE OF THE DATA ENTERED OR NOT ENTERED IN THE CIVIL STATUS REGISTER WITH REGARD TO THE PERSON IN QUESTION

Rzeszów Municipal Office

1. Documents required to handle the case

- the application for the issue of a certified copy of the civil status record or a certificate of the data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question
- proof of payment of stamp duty – if the certified copy or certificate is subject to stamp duty,
- valid proof of identity – available for viewing

2. Online application submission

The application for the issue of a certified copy of the civil status record or a certificate of the data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question may be sent electronically if the applicant can affix a qualified electronic signature or a signature confirmed by the ePUAP trusted profile.

According to the law, the authentication of ICT system users using online services provided by the entities specified in the Act of 17 February 2005 on the computerisation of the activities of public entities requires the use of the ePUAP trusted profile or data verified with a qualified electronic signature certificate.

Address of the ePUAP trusted profile: <http://eipn.gov.pl>

The Civil Registry Office in Rzeszów kindly informs that certified copies of birth, marriage and death certificates issued as an electronic document can only be used in the IT systems of the institutions to which they are transferred. A printout of such a certified copy is not an official document.

We hereby inform you that on 21 April 2020, the Ministry of Digital Affairs has launched an extended version of an e-service to apply online for certified copies of civil status records. Thanks to this e-service, an electronic certified copy of the civil status record can be obtained immediately. The document is generated directly from the State Records System (SRP) and then automatically uploaded to the applicant's My Gov box.

The e-service's new version is one of the activities under the POPC State Records System Development project.

5. Manner of and deadline for handling the case

Manner of handling the case

The head of the civil registry office issues abbreviated and full certified copies of birth, marriage and death certificates, and certificates on the data entered or not entered into the civil status register with regard to the person in question, among others, from the civil status register.

The application for the issue of a certified copy of the civil status record or a certificate of the data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question is filed to the head of the civil registry office of choice, regardless of the place where the act was drawn up and is kept.

The following persons are entitled to receive copies of civil status records and certificates on the data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question: the data subject, their spouse, ascendants (parents, grandparents), descendants (children, grandchildren), siblings, legal representative, guardian, a person who demonstrates a legitimate interest, a court, a public prosecutor, social organisations, if it is in line with their statutory aims and is in the public interest, and public administration bodies, if necessary for the performance of their statutory tasks.

A certified copy of the civil status record and the certificate of data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question may also be issued at the request of a third party, based on a special power of attorney granted by the person authorised to receive a certified copy of the civil status record.

A power of attorney granted to ascendants (parents, grandparents), descendants (children, grandchildren), siblings, spouse is exempt from stamp duty in the amount of PLN 17.

A certified copy of the civil status record and a certificate of the data entered or not entered into the civil status register with regard to the person in question may be issued, upon request, as an electronic document bearing a secure electronic signature verified by means of a valid qualified certificate. Abbreviated certified copies of civil status records may also be issued, upon request, on multilingual forms.

A certificate of data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question is valid for 6 months from the date it was drawn up.

Deadline for handling the case:

A civil status record drawn up in a civil status book kept in accordance with the current rules of law and kept by the head of the civil registry office shall be transferred to the civil status register. If the application for the issue of a certified copy of a civil status record or for the issue of a certificate on the data entered or not entered into the civil status register with regard to the person in question has been submitted to the head of the civil registry office keeping the civil status register, the head will transfer the civil status record to the civil status register within 7 working days from the application's filing date.

If the application for the issue of a certified copy of a civil status record or for the issue of a certificate on the data entered or not entered into the civil status register with regard to the person in question has been submitted to the head of the civil registry office not keeping the civil status register, the civil status record is transferred to the civil status register within the time allowing to issue the certified copy or certificate within 10 working days from the application's filing date.

6. Appeal procedure

The refusal to issue a certified copy of a civil status record and a certificate on the data entered or not entered in the civil status register with regard to the person in question takes the form of an administrative decision.

The applicant can file an appeal against the decision to the Podkarpackie Voivode, via the Head of the local Civil Registry Office, within the period of 14 days from the date of the decision's delivery.
